

Masayuki Hirata

Senior Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, and Managing Director of Global Business Division

Masayuki Hirata became Senior Executive Vice President and Managing Director of the Global Business Division responsible for the international business affairs of NTT DoCoMo in 2004. Prior to this, he was an Executive Vice President and Managing Director of the Accounts and Finance Department from 2001. He oversaw the listing of DoCoMo shares on the New York and London stock exchanges in 2002.

Mr. Hirata also served as Senior Vice President and Managing Director of the Affiliated Company Department from 2000 to 2001.

Prior to 2000, Mr. Hirata was a member of Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corp. (NTT), DoCoMo's parent company. He held a number of posts at NTT involving finance or general affairs, during which time he developed special expertise in financing. He was Director of the Department IV of NTT-Holding Provision Headquarters and General Manager of the Transition Settlement Office from January 1999 to July 1999, and served as Director of the Department IV from July 1999 to June 2000.

He joined NTT in 1970 after graduating from the University of Tokyo with a bachelor's degree in law. He was born on July 30, 1947.